1 As regards the transfer of existing Schools from one place to another, the Inspector Genl points out that the Head of the Education Deptt has ever since its formation exercised the power of transferring Schools from places where they did not flourish for local reasons, to places where

2 As per 1 Should the existing practice of transferring Village Kannada Schools from one place to another may continue, the transfer of purely Hindustani Schools seems to require the Sanction of Government in the light of the observations made by the Dewan in the Office note in File No 100-04 for November 1905 (Pulp.)

of an already sanctioned Hindustani School from one place to another requires the previous approval of Govt. I do not know why the words "before transferring such schools from one place to another" were put in - I would remove the restriction.

Seen & have already given my opinion that no restriction of the kind in question need be imposed The no. of transfers of Hindustani Schools may not be large when compared with that of Kannada Schools and that in my humble opinion is no reason why a departure as asked for in the first time now be made and a restriction imposed

Have no objection to agree with the Commissioner in this instance — But there is a difference in principle between Kannada & Urdu Hindustani schools — The former are opened & language of the locality & instruction must be imparted in it — Others are special institutions for which the people benefited should supplement the expenditure from general cases But all the same I do not see any reason for both order — They may be considered when there is any amendment

SIR

With reference to Government Order No 4755-6/Ed(100-04)-2 dated the 8th Instant on the subject of opening Hindustani Schools in the State, I have the honour to inform you that the sanction of Government is always sought when new schools whether Hindustani or Kannada are opened, when the opening of such schools entails additional expenditure.
